25Aug Designer T - Shirts To Benefit Hospitals Of Burundi

On sale today are some amazing t-shirts to benefit the people of burundi. I've always loved her mom Isabella, but it seems Elettra Rossellini Wiedemann is positioning herself to be the next Angelina Jolie -perhaps far surpassing saint Jolie. Elettra is not only gorgeous and has all the right friends, but she is electrifyingly charged about helping the world and those less fortunate. Aside from her Biomedicine studies soon to commence at the London School of Economics, Elettra found time to commission some of her friends to assist in another cause hailing from Africa. Upon learning that once the sun went down, the lights went out in the hospitals of burundi -leaving operations and births to be performed by head lights- Elettra was told it would take only a half a million dollars to change all that. The result is a collection of t-shirts by Chris Benz, Phillip Lim, Rag & Bone, Rogan, Giambattista Valli and House of Diehl. There are limited edition with only 100 of each and all the proceeds go to this charity. Please click HERE to learn more and purchase a tee (they are all really nice). The Army of M.E. adores these collaborations!
